Orinda's Red Cross Drive Is Doing Well

As the American Red Cross drive enters its third week, Orinda Drive Chairman Mrs. Robert Bennett reports a bank balance to date of $2,275.12.

Total quota for Orinda is $3,800.

Sector captains and lieutenants who have completed canvassing their territory are Mesdames Sigurd Groennings, Norris Wiggins, H. Watts Pillsbury, Harry Lavagetto, Alexander Morris, R. H. Curtiss.

Harper Allen, James Lindsay, Horace Breed, Carl Zander, Robert Muse and William Tildsley.

Waddy Wadsworth and Rollin Simon have completed contact with the business district.

Mothers Hear of Problem Parents

Two parental extremes are responsible for the increasing number of young people who come to or are sent to probation officers for help and guidance.

They are the faults of expecting too much and being impatient with children or the opposite attitude of minimizing importance of discipline and control.

That is the opinion of Dr. Wakefield Wickam, juvenile court psychiatrist and professor of mental hygiene at the University of California, as expressed to the Orinda Mothers Club at its Tuesday meeting.

Dr. Wickham's subject was "Are You a Problem Parent?" In covering it he dealt with parental responsibility for rising rate of insanity and increased juvenile delinquency rates.

He summed up principal characteristics of children of elementary school age and said that while no parent can or should try to be a perfect machine it is encouraging to know that a problem child is not the product of one lapse.

Where the parent may occasionally fail, Dr. Wickham said, there are many other community influences such as schools, scout organizations, churches, etc.. to supplement the influence of the home.

Mothers Form Health Committee

Appointment of a Health Committee has been announced by Mrs. Donald Krotz, Orinda Mothers Club president. The function of this committee will be to cooperate with Orinda and Glorietta Schools on all matters pertaining to the health of Orinda school children.

As a first step, there are now available charts on communicable diseases, put out by the Contra Costa Health Department, and showing periods of incubation, symptoms, etc., of childhood diseases. Copies of these charts may be obtained from Superintendent Sheaff's office.

Heading the newly formed Health Committee, will be Mrs. Wm. H. Brailsford, Jr. Serving with her will be Mesdames Glenn Butler, Horace Breed, H. C. Gathings, Roger Stark and Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff.

Guild Endorses Slot Machine Law

Section 1 of the Guild met Thursday afternoon, March 9 at the home of Mrs. John Dorr. Among other business matters acted upon, the group voted to endorse Thomas Caldecott's bill to outlaw slot machines in California. Mrs. E. Dawson led the devotions.

The highlight of the program was Mrs. Clara Snyder's most delightful combination of recitations and piano solos as "Claire de Lune" by Bach, "To an Evening Star" by Wagner, "The Birdling" by Greig, "To a Waterlilly" by McDowel, "The Fish" by Schubert, and "The Butterfly" By Melnotte. She also told many interesting facts about the composers' character and life.

The Orinda SUN Has a Birthday

Today's issue of this newspaper marks the Eighth Birthday of the ORINDA SUN.

It began publication seven years ago as the Boulevard News. In October, 1947, it came under its present management and was changed to the Orinda SUN, devoted solely to Orinda coverage.

The SUN is observing its birthday as usual—at work to carry news of Orinda's doings and advertisements of its business establishments to residents of the area.

Fireman Sues For Injury Damages

Inspector William Koch, of the Orinda fire department is asking $15,000 damages for injuries received February 25 when his fire truck was struck by another vehicle at the Orinda Crossroads while he was answering a fire call.

This week Koch filed suit, asking that amount, against Albert Gavillet of Walnut Creek in Contra Costa County superior court.

Koch's complaint charges Gavillet's car collided with the fire truck when Koch drive through a red signal at the Crossroads with the red light and fire siren sounding.

As a result, Koch said, he suffered a brain concussion and a permanent back injury.

Spring Weather Comes to Orinda

Well, did you Orinda husbands take our advice? Don't say we didn't warn you to pay your income tax early, before your payment went to the heads of the feminine contingent in the shape of new bonnets. Gosh, Spring is breaking out all over, just like measles and just as catching.

Your Orinda weatherman reports a high of 64 degrees on March 13, in giving the readings for the 7th to 14th. The minimum of 25 degrees was registered Sunday. A drizzle of .18 inches of rain was hardly noticeable to local veterans of real downpours.

With March 15 still a vivid recollection in the local memory, judicious planning suggests getting the spring finery on the time plan. Interest is deductible, we hope!

Orinda Camellias Win at Sacramento

Sweepstakes Trophy in the Camellia Society of Sacramento was won by Barlow Hollingshead, 12 La Cintilla Avenue, Orinda, with a total of 92 points. A. R. Carstensen, Sacramento, was runner-up with 82 points; Dr. Walker Wells, Piedmont, was second runner-up with 50 points.

Silver Certificate of American Camellia Society, award for second greatest number of blue ribbons in the horticultural section was also captured by Barlow Hollingshead, with 13 blue ribbons.

Chamber of Commerce Trophy for best collection of named varieties went to Dave Feathers, 1 Camellia Lane, Lafayette.

It will be remembered that Dave Feathers was Sweepstakes winner at the Northern California Camellia Society Show in Berkeley with 83 points; and Barlow Hollingshead was runner-up with 72 points. This brings Sweepstakes for both the Berkeley and Sacramento Shows for 1950 to this area of Contra Costa County, where conditions are ideal for the growing of Camellias.

Orinda Golf Pro Enters Tourney

Pat Patten, golf pro for Orinda Country Club, is entered in the first annual Hole-In-One Contest which begins today on the front lawn of Oakland Auditorium.

Contestants will be judged on the best average of nearness to the 76 yard hole.

Attorney Denies Tarantino Story

George T. Davis, prominent San Francisco attorney, this week denied that he had ever acted as legal representative for Jimmie Tarantino.

In the February 10 edition of Hollywood Life, distributed free throughout Lafayette and Orinda, Tarantino stated "Our attorney George T. Davis of San Francisco claims that this columnist could easily win a criminal libel suit as well as civil.

"But realizing Silverman's position it would be a heartless act."

This week Davis told the SUN "As far as I know there are only three ways in which an attorney becomes a man's counsel—through receipt of a retainer fee, accepting the task as a labor of love or through appointment by the court — and none of these actions has taken place.

"I would like to make it clear that I am not Jimmie Tarantino's legal representative and never have been.

"I have been in Germany for the past month and it was not until this week that I was informed of the Hollywood Life article. I am happy to have this matter cleared up."

Davis is prominent throughout the Bay Area by reason of his extraordinary record as a defense attorney. His most recent success was the acquittal of Parvis Daryoosh, Iranian student at the University of California.

Downer Still works On Sewer Cleanup

The Downer Corporation went back to work last Friday on cleanup work on its sewer installation contract in central Lafayette.

All Downer equipment was moved out of the Lafayette area two weeks ago while company officials tried to negotiate with the Contra Costa Sanitary District board for filing of assessments on Local Improvement District No. 3.

Corporation officials asked for the right to post a faithful performance bond against acceptance of its work in return for filing of assessments.

PROPOSAL REJECTED

When the board rejected this proposal the company then offered to make a cash deposit with the board, authorizing Sanitary Engineer John Mason to pay for cleanup work out of the deposit.

On advice of the board's legal counsel the deposit was also rejected and action on assessment filing was withheld until cleanup work is completed and the project is accepted by Mason.

There are still 23 different tracts where fill and other cleanup work must be carried out, Mason said. Part of Downer's trouble, Mason said, came from the heavy January and February rains which washed away fills and disrupted repairs.

CAN'T ACCEPT WORK

"With such conditions existing," Mason said, "I can't accept the work. I have no idea when the Downer work will be finished."

Hollingshead to Judge Camellias

Barlow Hollingshead, local flower grower, has been made one of the three judges for the seventh annual Marin County Camellia Show to be held at San Rafael Saturday.

The other judges on the panel are Dr. G. W. Richmond of Richmond and Mrs. William Stoeckle of Concord. All three are camellia experts and winners in recent Northern California flower shows. The Orinda man won high honors at the Northern California Camellia Association Show held at Berkeley several weeks ago.

Girl Scout Pageant Breaks All Records

The Girl Scout International Pageant held at Acalanes High School last Friday brought a record smashing 2,033 persons to the performance.

Girls of thirty troops in the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council took part in the spectacle which was based on the theme, "United States—The Melting Pot of the World."

This is the fourth year of the pageant which is held annually in observance of the National Girl Scout Birthday on March 12, and the outstanding attendance stands as proof of the increasing interest in the Girl Scout program. Fifteen hundred were in last year's audience, with 400 attending the previous year's program.

Colorful costumes depicting various foreign countries and the United States were worn by the girls who took part in the program of skits, songs and dances that made up the pageant. A map of each country represented was placed in the "melting pot" by master of ceremonies Fred Seulberger, symbolizing absorption of people of all nations in the United States.

Mrs. H. E. Winterton was chairman of arrangements for the production, assisted by Mesdames Dustin Ritchie, Wilma Sands, Alice Le Duc, Stephen Kelley, Louise Crouch, E. Gorton-Linsley and J. E. Gray.

Publicity Chairman Mrs. William Bouick revealed that even the smoke from the melting pot had an international flavor, through the use of punks purchased in Chinatown.

Mothers to Buy Sound Equipment

Funds raised by the Orinda Mothers Club this year will go toward purchase and installation of a central sound system at Orinda and Glorietta Schools.

Club members voted the action at their Tuesday meeting on recommendation of its welfare committee as presented by Mrs. Sever Ballard, welfare chairman.

Idaho Woman Visits Daughters in Orinda

Mrs. Blanche Brumet of Filer, Idaho, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. A. W. Eberlin and Mrs. Clara Smith.

Bobby Eberlin was especially happy to have his grandmother help him celebrate his fifth birthday on Sunday. He was proud too to introduce her to his friends who came to his party on Saturday.

March of Dimes Brings in $1206

Credited with $1206.14, Orinda's March of Dimes campaign fell below the total donated last year by $159.14, according to the report released following tabulation completion.

Last year's fund drive was augmented by the proceeds of a March of Dimes dance which netted a sizable sum for the campaign. Superintendent of Orinda Schools Joseph Sheaff was chairman of the local drive.

Rotarians View Boxing Movies

Pictures of winter sports included in the Olympic Games and shots of the Graziano-Bane fight were presented at Wednesday's meeting of Orinda Rotary by Ben Randall.

An added feature of the meeting was the customary congratulatory ritual honoring Dr. James Haywood as a recent father.

British Vice Consul Ernest W. Owen has given the intriguing title "The British Empore—So What" to his talk to be presented before the Orinda service club next week.

Born in Wales, Owen moved to Canada after completing schooling in England: Starting with the Sun Life Assurance Society in 1907, he spent some years with this company, rising rapidly to a higher position. Retiring in 1939, he was appointed public relations officer for the British government, serving in Northern California and Nevada.

Orindan's Mother Dies at Home

Mrs. Louisa E. Cobb, mother of Mrs. Kenneth Gelwix with whom she lived, died March 9 after a short illness.

Water Directors To Serve Again

Fred Elkinton and John Stoeffle will serve another term as directors of the board of Orinda Water District.

The two Orindans were reappointed by the county board of supervisors when no other candidates filed nomination papers.

Under state law no election is necessary for a water board if the number of candidates is equal to the number of vacancies. In such case appointment is left up to the county supervisors.

Oak Springs Pool To Be Improved

Improvement of the Oak Springs Pool for the coming season was the main topic of discussion when members of the Oak Springs Home Association met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller on Brookwood Road, Monday night.

Repair of the inside of the pool is to be accomplished, with official opening for the year scheduled for around May 15. The pool, which is private, is opened to the public once a year when the association sponsors a picnic and swim party, according to Mrs. L. Mikesell, secretary.

The session was concluded with the serving of coffee and doughnuts and the members had a social hour.

Jack Rechtiene heads the group as president, with Tom Hall, vice-president; Mrs. H. Gutsch, treasurer, and Mrs. Mikesell, secretary.

Ritchie Smith wants someone to refresh his mind on the 1920's—anyone who remembers the popular music of that era, or the bon mots currently in vogue at that time, get in touch with him.

Maestro Bob Brown continually searches in vain at the right hand side of his orchestra for bass horns which aren't there. He says he needs trombones, tubas, French horns, in short, bass horns of all types, to balance his assortment of violins, Jew's harps and other stringed instruments. Can anyone help him out?

Medical Society Finds No Cases Of Overcharge

If you believe you are being charged too much for medical care you should report the case to the County Medical Society.

Dr. M. C. Bolender, of Walnut Creek, president of the Medical Society, said that all reports of medical overcharge are carefully investigated so that disciplinary action may be taken if necessary.

So far, Dr. Bolender said, no actual cases of fee gouging have been found in Contra Costa County. Five cases were reported last year and three such complaints have been registered this year.

In every instance investigators have found complaints to have arisen through misunderstandings between doctors and patients. Patient - doctor conferences arranged by the society have ironed out the misunderstandings, Bolender said.

If The Madam Shops For Him

Flaming red, Kelly green, rust, helio, pearl grey and winter navy are the six top colors on the fashion hit parade right now — for men!

This startling news comes as the result of a recent survey conducted by Wilson Brothers, manufacturers of men's furnishings. It was based on actual sales of sportswear, underclothes, socks, pajamas, shirts, ties and the like.

The survey further revealed some of the things a woman looks for when she shops for her man:

1. A good brand name that indicates quality merchandise.
2. Labels that identify fabrics and their contents.
3. Washing instructions that must be followed.
4. Tags that tell fading and shrinking percentages.
5. Generous seams.

Predict Short Hair For Spring

A return to the sculptured look of the Clara Bow era in 1950's Spring hair styles is the forecast of Eddie Sens, make-up man and hair style consultant.

Although next Spring's hair styles will follow the general trend of the flapper era, femininity will be a major factor in hairdos with more softness apparent than was evident in the severely styled hair-dos of two decades ago.

The Clara Bow or "helmet" coiffure, as it'll be known this Spring, features sleekness, with the hair caressing the face and front, and a short bang over the left temple in place of the declinlingly popular center bang. Although the hair in back will be worn straight, there'll be no return to the shingled bob of the 1920's.

Camellia Expert Guest Speaker At Garden Section

David Feathers, Director of the Camellia Society of northern California, and well-known writer and radio commentator on camellia culture, will be the guest speaker at the Lafayette Forum's Garden Section meeting next Tuesday, at 2 p.m. in the Town Hall.

Camellia enthusiasts —and who in Lafayette isn't — have a real treat in store for them, for Mr. Feathers has promised to bring to the meeting samples of his "wares," prize-winning camellia blossoms, to present to each member of his audience. Not only is the guest speaker a four-time winner of the Camellia Sweepstakes, but he is eminently qualified to discuss camellia culture in this area as he has been raising his prize blossoms at his Hidden Valley home for many years, and estimates that, at present, he has between 300 and 400 plants.

Copies of some of Mr. Feathers' popular articles on camellia culture will also be presented to Forum gardeners and their guests, according to Mrs. Don Blackwood, Garden Section Chairman.

Winter Rains Damage House

The recent winter rains wreaked havoc at the Brook Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ronald.

In fact, so much damage was done to the underpinnings of the house that it is now being moved to another location. The house was built on a clay strata base which washed away during the heavy rains causing the house to buckle.

It was so seriously damaged that the county building inspector condemned it.

Until the house is re-located elsewhere the Ronald family is making its home in Sunset Village.

Dons Bounced From Tournament

The high flying Acalanes Dons, league champs for 1949-50, received rough treatment from the Salinas Cowboys in the second round of the Tournament of Champions in San Francisco last Friday night.

Salinas dropped the Dons 38-32 to bounce them out of turney play. The Cowboys chalked up their win by controlling the backboards and bottling up Marsh Freeman, Don scoring ace, holding him to 7 points. Harry Nielson was high for the Dons with 11 points.

Thursday night the Dons had established themselves as a "sleeper threat" when they dumped Weed 41-38, staving off a last minute rally.

Freeman shone in the Weed game, tallying 18 points.

Friday night's action was the final play for this year's championship Don squad.

Coach Arth will lose four out of his five starters. Freeman, Lloyd Torchio, Cliff Lucas, Granny Siler and Larry Feagans all graduate this year.

Only real veteran returning next year will be Nielson, who is a junior.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

THE ACALANES TRACK TEAM got the 1950 season under way last week when they lost to a powerful and well balanced Fremont team.

The Dons did show definite possibilities in several events, notably the broad jump, high jump and shot put.

Dick Twomey surprised everyone, including himself, when he cleared the high jump bar at the six foot mark only to have the Fremont entry go an inch higher. Dick's jump was actually the highest mark ever cleared by Acalanes but he missed a school record because regulations rule that one must win the event in order to set a mark.

IN THE SHOT PUT Lawrence Lucas proved to be boss of the iron men as he heaved the twelve pound ball beyond the forty nine foot line.

Pete Larmer, Orlando Chiavini and Dick Laney were all bunched close behind Lawrence to give the team better than average strength and needed points.

In the broad jump "Jiggers" Warren led the pack with a leap of 19 feet, 6 inches with Eddie Grueb and Ed Broome over the 19 foot mark as well.

The main weakness of the Dons appears to be in the sprints where Coach Eaton lacks top sprinters who can step off the hundred in 10.2 or under.

Lack of sprinters hurt in the relays as well. The final event counts five points but actually means 10 in that winning gives one five points and takes five away from an opponent.

The reverse is true when the opposition wins. In other events second and third places count in dual meets with fourth tallying a point where three or more are involved.

In view of early results look for the Dons to be well up in county standings and top honors in the county meet are a definite possibility.

Much will depend on how other teams split up the points. On paper it looks like strong competition will come from the Diablo camp.

BASEBALL IS IN FULL swing and the Dons have probably more boys playing the diamond game than any other school in the county.

The varsity has 18 on the roster with close to 40 on the Junior Varsity list.

The Junior Varsity has a full schedule and are coached by Mr. Brown. Practice games have shown definite possibilities on both squads.

The J.V. is really composed of two squads who have it out in a game each week to determine who will play the scheduled outside opposition.

The system gives more players a chance for playing and experience.

A number of players had to be released in order to keep the squads at a workable size.

One of the most difficult things to teach in baseball is the so called art of hitting. Many theories have been evolved but not sure fire method developed.

The fact remains that a good part of hitting lies in natural ability. Good habits and determination can improve any player but top hitters have to have that indefinable "it" which consists of the proper combination of muscle, reaction time and mental attitude.

A great deal depends on the mental. The average high school player beats himself mentally at bat. Most lack confidence in their ability to hit and often are hoping for a walk!

A player fails to hit in a game or two and immediately loses what confidence he does have. Then he tends to press and tie up when should relax.

Pro players often go a number of games without hitting but keep swinging and in time percentage catches up with them. Often a player in pro ball gets up as many times in a week as a high school player does in a season.

Even the top players go at times for a week with few hits and on occasion fail to get even a single scratch hit.

One big league team has gone so far as to hire a psychologist—it remains to be seen how much he can do with the number one problem of mental set.

Local Canines Enter SF Show

Seventy-five dog fanciers of Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and other Contra Costa county cities have entered their prize pedigreed canines in the second annual championship combined specialty show of San Francisco Dog Clubs, Inc., to be held in San Francisco March 26.

Scene of the smart event will be the Civic Auditorium.

Among the valuable pedigreed bow-wows entered from this county are several blue-blood Dachshunds owned by Ray Grant of Hill Top Kennels, Lafayette, and smooth champion Dachshunds owned by A. C. Spraggins of Walnut Creek.

San Francisco Dog Clubs, Inc., is composed of seven dog clubs representing as many breeds of dogs. In addition to Dachshunds, breeds to be shown and judged will be Collies, Chow Chows, English Bulldogs, Standard Schnauzers, Doberman Pinschers, Great Danes.

Dear Sir,

To the staff of the SUN goes a sincere "Thank You" for your interest and help in promoting and publicizing our many Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council Activities and events.

Very truly,
Mrs. Ruth Pape,
President.

DEAR SIR:

My husband and I sincerely appreciate your efforts in the current campaign against gambling. You have our wholehearted support and best wishes.

Mrs. JOHN E. DUSTIN

Dear Sir,

Thank you for printing my letter. Also for printing the one about the poisoned dog of 11-year-old Butch Fitzpatrick. Here is an open letter to Butch.

Dear Butch,

I have never had a dog poisoned but I've had them die and I know just how you feel. But don't be too sad. I am sure Pandy is not too far away from you.

He is perhaps running along with you in spirit just as he once did. Go to your library, Butch, and find the book by Beth Brown. "All Dogs Go to Heaven." You will feel the same as she does, I know, and it will ease the ache some.

Another dog lover,
Mrs. Ralph Hanville.

(letter to Walnut Kernel)

DEAR SIR:

Well, it has finally come out. People no longer need suspect it. It is now blatantly proclaimed.

"I've got the best board of supervisors in the state."

So announced W. J. Buchanan of Pittsburg at the labor dinner held at a Mt. Diablo Boulevard cafe.

Many have long said that personal government dominates the county, that there are "rubber stamps" and bossism and "me-too-ism," but this is the first time that it has been publicly proclaimed.

It is good to have authority.

Buchanan's statement was the talk of 300 persons, who were shocked by the frankness of the declaration.

Well, there is an election coming and "rubber stamps" will have to face the barrier.

That statement is certain to be heard many times before June 6.

Report From Sacramento

By Assemblyman
ROBERT L. CONDON

The State Legislature is back in session for its regular biennial budget sitting, and this year the Governor has ordered a special session to run concurrently for the consideration of pressing matters.

And so I resume this series of weekly reports from Sacramento so the lines of communication on political and legislative problems between the people of Contra Costa County and their elected representative can be maintained.

THE BUDGET: The budget for the fiscal year 1950-51 is $971,615,944. Although Governor Warren spoke of it as a "balanced" budget, actually the anticipated expenditures are $14,100,000 more than expected revenues. The "balance" is achieved by transferring unexpended funds from previous fiscal years to the General Fund in the next fiscal year.

Because the budget is "tight," the Governor indicated that he would veto special appropriations, such as the $6,000,000 for child care centers and the school appropriations, unless the Legislature also specified means of raising additional revenue.

SPECIAL SESSION: The primary concern of the special session will be pensions, schools, gambling, and unemployment.

Bills in the hopper would remove the "relative's responsibility" for aged, keep the 63 and 64 year olds on the rolls, and revert to State instead of county administration. The schools will doubtless obtain some additional appropriations.

Anti-slot machine bills, defeated in 1949, are certain to carry at this session.

Ten percent of the workers in California and fifteen percent in Contra Costa County are unemployed at the present time, and the Legislature must face this ever-growing problem.

Bills to establish a State relief program and extensive public works will be introduced, but their passage is unlikely.

MISCELLANY: Richmond recently received approval from the Allocations Board for a $77,000 school for cerebral palsied children . . . At the opening of the Legislature, neither Governor Warren nor Lt. Governor Knight shook hands or spoke to each other. The bad feeling between the two is plainly evident . . . All 80 Assembly seats and 20 of the Senate seats must be filled at this year's election.

Eighth Graders Study Operation Of Government

By ILSE DIX

On Monday, March 6, the eighth grade of Lafayette School went to Martinez to see how our county government operates.

First we went to the Contra Costa Hall of Records. We saw the Board of Supervisors in session. Next we went to the County Clerk's office and we met Mr. Paasch, who spoke to us.

We then went downstairs where they keep records of voters in different county precincts. From there we visited the photostat room, where we learned that it takes seven seconds to photograph a piece of material and twenty minutes to dry and develop.

From there we went to the County School Library and saw all of the books.

After the Hall of Records, we went to the County Courthouse and met Mr. Wilson who talked to us on the work of his department.

Then we went to the office of the Assessor and the assistant assessor spoke to us. Then we went to the Tax Collector's office where he looked up descriptions of different people's property.

From there we went downstairs an dsaw the Sheriff's office. Lieutenant Rhodes explained the work of this department. He also showed us some enlarged finger prints. Last we went to the Treasurer's department, where Mr. Kinney explained the vault. He also told us that the door weighed ten tons.

After that our pictures were taken out on the lawn.

We arrived back at Lafayette about 12:20.

Naval Reserve To Meet Tuesday

Comdr. C. W. Nimitz, Jr., USN, will speak at the next meeting of the Naval Reserve Volunteer Composite Unit No. 12-25 of the Orinda- Walnut Creek area on Tuesday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Acalanes High School, Walnut Creek.

Comdr. Nimitz, executive officer and assistant professor of naval science and tactics at the University of California NROTC unit will speak on "Defense: A Low Level Appraisal."

Lt. (j.g.) John Crevelt of Walnut Creek, is in charge of the program which is open to all Naval officers of the area.

Our Horseman's Paradise

By ADA MORGAN

'Under The Wide And Starry Sky Dig My Grave And Let Me Lie'

RIDING THROUGH the Bear Creek canyon section, coming across on the road that runs from the Orinda highway near Wildcat Creek to Lafayette, through Happy Valley, I stopped to look up at the unusual burial place of Edward J. Hampton.

The hills were a bright carpet of green. There was an orchard on a slope below. Cattle and horses grazed in the pasture that edge the wooded canyons. And I thought Hampton had made a wise choice, years ago, when he chose the high hill for his private crypt.

About thirty-nine years ago Hampton bought considerable land in the Bear Creek area. He had been an electrician of some note. He moved to his Bear Creek home from Oakland, finally, and thoroughly enjoyed his retirement on his ranch where he ran cattle.

He was, however, rather eccentric, so 'tis said, although much of his crossness toward tresspassers might have been caused by them abusing their privilege.

There was one thing sure in his mind. He so loved his hills and canyons that he chose a high knoll that overlooked them for his last resting place. And he prepared it to his liking before his death in 1935.

He drove a tractor to level off the knoll. Then he dug a deep hole and began the construction of the crypt, keeping its purpose secret even from his wife.

He had a Catholic priest consecrate the ground. He told one close friend how his head was to be laid and how the simply engraved but large headstone and slab of concrete should be placed to mark and cover his last resting place.

It was this friend who followed his wishes to the letter, who pulled the hearse up the steep and slippery hillside, with a tractor, when Hampton's body was taken to his crypt.

Today the private cemetery can be seen from the road, if one knows where to look. It is enclosed with a cast bronze fence, and from it one has a sweeping panoramic view of miles and miles of hills, canyons and valleys.

But, unless one knows the story of Hampton, the crypt and burial plot is not recognizable nor significant.

Nor is the fact that, before his death, he deeded about fifty acres in its vicinity to Contra Costa County. This was to be used as a park if the county improved it and maintained it.

Whether the land is still owned by the county, whether it has been sold, I don't know. It hasn't been made into a park, and it is still used as cattle range, with the sturdy fence around Hampton's plot protecting it from them.

Several years ago, while looking at horses near Bear Creek, one who knew Hampton told me a little about him, and pointed out his knoll.

I had almost forgotten about this rather strange man, until I looked up at his knoll again the other day. He may have been called eccentric but one can't help admiring the strength of purpose he showed in planning and carrying out all the details he could to have his last resting place the way he wanted it.

So that he would always be, undisturbed and solitary, in his unique site overlooking the once isolated and lonely lands he so loved.

Elephant's Tale

BANNED IN BOSTON— BUT NOT in LAFAYETTE

BOASTING neither city fathers nor a board of censorship, Lafayette has been fully exposed to the dire effects of that wicked song called "Go To Sleep, Go To Sleep, Go To Sleep," which those two likeable instruments of the devil — Mary Martin and Arthur Godfrey — have made into what might be called an overnight sensation.

Officially Banned in Boston as a threat to public morals, the record is selling at Roger Barber's like sheets at a January white sale. We wonder if there can be any connection between the banning and the phenomenal popularity of the disc. Our guess is that Columbia's board of directors offers up a little prayer of thanks every night to the good defenders of Boston's public morals.

Speaking of censorship, did you know that the original cast recording of Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" includes lyrics which were considered too daring for the ears of Los Angelenos when the show was staged in the southern metropolis a few months ago?

SALE OF ITALIAN POTTERY

By purchasing the remaining stock of a San Francisco importer of Italian ceramics, Roger Barber's is enabled to offer flower pots of beautiful design at very special close-out prices. These pots are nested in five sizes, but they may be purchased as individual pieces. The designs, mostly floral, are hand decorated in gay colors and are equally suitable for both interior and patio use. The original prices, which seemed low to most buyers familiar with imported ceramics, were 1.10, 1.30, 1.50, 1.75 and 2.00 for the five graduated sizes.

Sale prices are 89c, 1.00, 1.25, 1.49 and 1.69. The complete nest is priced at 5.98 — a saving of 1.67 over the former price.

We suggest that you see our window display of these Italian pots. Incidentally, they make different (and expensive looking) gifts, and we've sold scores of them for that purpose.

We looked for something out-of-the-ordinary for Easter (April 9) and found some gayly-colored wooden eggs that open and empty forth a whole nestful of tiny ducks. The Italians carved these by hand and children and adults alike are charmed by them. They come in two sizes, priced at 60c and 1.00.

Then there are miniature rabbit musicians and other characters, also the work of the Italian wood carvers, and all as cute as a bug's ear.

Our big line of Hallmark greeting cards for Easter is on display now — choose early for best selections! By the way, it isn't too late to send St. Patrick's Day greetings.

March 17th — there's no other day of the year we'd rather have behind us. Now we can shake off those income tax blues.

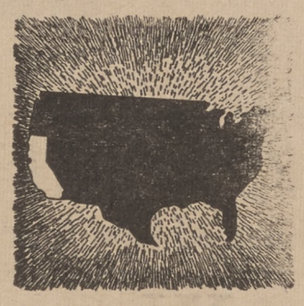
Wired help in your kitchen

Young homemakers of today can get a complete dinner on the table, from salad to dessert, in about half the time it took Mother twenty years ago. Of course, Mother did her work by hand, while Daughter has a staff of electric servants helping her. Low cost electricity, for example, runs a mixer for three hours for less than a penny. And the electric dishwasher washes and dries a daily quota of dishes for just a fraction more. Do you work in a brightly lighted kitchen, with the air swept clean of cooking fumes and completely staffed with wired help? Thousands of happy housewives save time and energy in an electric kitchen. Why not you?



One of the bright spots for electric appliance sales in the Nation is your part of California, where practically all of the homes and farms are wired for electricity. And serving you here are nearly 2,300 friendly and helpful electric appliance dealers.

Low electric rates mean good business for the electric dealers in your community. Last year, retail dealers sold 93,000 refrigerators, 73,000 washers, 30,000 vacuum cleaners, 11,000 home freezers, and 10,000 ironers in Northern and Central California.

For the record

LIVING COSTS UP

It takes many more dollars to buy what your family needs today. Living costs in San Francisco, for example, are now more than 51% higher than in 1923 and 87% higher than in 1933.

ELECTRIC COSTS DOWN

Despite the rising cost of living, the price of electricity has gone down and down. NINE major rate reductions made by this company since 1923—the latest in 1946—have cut the cost of household electricity more than 50%.

Concert Tickets Go On Sale Monday

Next week will be Community Concert week.

Beginning Monday membership cards can be obtained for the 1950-51 series of concerts of the Acalanes Community Concert Association. The following Saturday the campaign will be closed and no further members will be accepted.

MUSICAL BARGAIN

A membership card entitles the holder to attend all the association concerts at Acalanes as well as the concerts in neighboring communities. The $6 fee for adults and the $4 fee for students (tax included) represents a great musical bargain for concert-goers in this area.

Among artists presented during the past two seasons were William Primrose, world-famous violist; David Lloyd, tenor who sang last week with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra; Mata and Hari, comedy dancers and Jose Sauroma, pianist.

The fourth and final concert on this year's program will be given by Joanna and Nikolai Graudan, cello-piano duo on March 25.

No individual admissions will be sold to any of the concerts.

Memberships may be obtained from any one of the following: Mrs. R. C. Anthonisen, Orinda 6351; Mrs. R. H. Bennett, Orinda 6436; Mrs. Marie Bennett, Lafayette 2425; Mrs. R. D. Harrison, Orinda 5766; Mrs. George Neldam, Orinda 2580; Mrs. Ben Randall, Orinda 2250; Mrs. E. J. Unruh, Orinda 2829; Mrs. B. W. West, Orinda 2518 and Mrs. George Vurek, Orinda 7781.

Sheerest Prints For Spring Wear

Printed sheers as gay as a butterfly's wing are featured by the yard and on the rack this Spring.

Rayon sheers are presented in the brilliant colors usually associated with silk shantung. Such colors as electric blue, shocking pink and onion skin orange give an illusion of body to the delicate fabric. Other budget sheers appear expensive in dramatic brush stroke abstracts or detailed ink sketches. For those who prefer chiffon-type prints, there are pretty pastel flowers, dainty spaced geometrics and tiny precise checks.

Cellophane-crisp organdies with frosty etchings are favored for little girls' ice cream party dresses as well as for lawn-sweeping bridesmaid's gowns. Notable are the organdies printed to appear as though they had insets of lace. There is a marked departure from small prints in the large swirls and damask effects seen. One fabric firm offers smooth textured organdy with a plisse design.

KEEP HORN IN SHAPE

With traffic exceptionally heavy, a horn that is instantly responsive to the button is an absolute necessity, declares the National Automobile Club. Horns as a rule give very little trouble, but they are subjected to vibration and jolts that serve to loosen connections. Such a horn is slow and generally inefficient. It should not be tolerated in that condition.

POPULAR this spring are silk crepes modeled by Mrs. L. Pingree, from Marzel's, Lafayette.

Tapered and peg topped broadcloth slacks designed by Frances Sider. The shirt and bra are of checked tablecloth cotton.

Parent Cake Sale Aids Scholarship

Nearly $300 was realized by the Acalanes Parents Club through the cake sale held March 4, it was reported at the club board meeting. Money raised in this annual project is earmarked for the scholarship fund which is used in aiding deserving young Acalanes graduates who plan to go on to college. Several scholarships are given out by the Parents Club each year.

The delicious home-made cakes were on sale at stores in Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek, with committee members in charge. Mrs. Helen Cory is chairman of the Parents Club Ways and Means committee.

IRISH CELEBRATION

Irish students at St. Mary's College celebrated early with a St. Patrick's Day dance last night at Carroll's Ranch Club.

Two Services at Orinda Church

Two services are again scheduled this Sunday at the Community Church in Orinda when the Rev. Fred Morrow will deliver the morning sermon at 11 o'clock on "The Dimensions of the Cross" and in the evening at 7:45 will present an informal discussion on the subject "What and Where is the Kingdom of God?"

Choir Director Mary Elizabeth Tomme has prepared musical parts of both services; in the morning the choir is to sing a Negro spiritual, "Were you there?" and a sixth grade girls' ensemble will present in the evening "There Is a Green Hill Far Away."

Of special interest is the presentation at 7:45 p.m. of the Cathedral film "The Prodigal Son."

Everett D. Howe is superintendent of the Sunday school which meets at 9:30 a.m. Boys and girls of primary, junior and intermediate grades are to bring their contributions for the Henry Veitch memorial worship center.

Scouts Landscape Church Grounds

Activity for the scouts of troop 210 is increasing. Scoutmaster Ed Azclar is planning an overnight camp the latter part of this month, a board of review for the first troop meeting in April and a court of honor.

With the observance of National Conservation Week the troop is spending time planting trees and shrubs at the scout site and also helping with the landscaping of the ground at Our Saviors Lutheran Church. The patrols of the troop are working on the grounds on successive Saturdays. Scouts Jim Lindsay, Jim LaFond, Charles Jett, Richard McDermed, Jim Fletcher, Terry Michna, Colin Izett, Bobby Nielsen, and John O'Brien of the Woodpecker patrol worked last Saturday.

At the last troop meeting March 2nd, advancement chairman, Leonard Jones, gave first aid instruction to the troop and 9 of the scouts passed their first aid tests.

The Eagle patrol under the councilorship of Charles Cary held an election of leaders. The following scouts were elected to patrol offices. Patrol leader Bob Werner, Assistant patrol leader Donald Cary, Quartermaster Harry Ruth, Treasurer Howard Jones and Scribe Steven Sparling.

The wise motorist never attempts to force his way into a line of traffic, advises the National Automobile Club. He signals his intention clearly, and then waits until traffic is clear enough to permit his proceeding with safety to himself and to his fellow motorists.

Red Cross Drive Brings One Fifth Of Quota So Far

Cash collections turned into the Walnut Creek headquarters of the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American National Red Cross through March 10, amounts to $2525.00, according to a report from headquarters.

This represents 20 per cent of the fixed goal of $12,500.00 reported officially in the first third of the month of March.

Those in charge of the fund drive believe, however, that it does not represent all the collections actually made in the several communities that make up the area.

They point out the experience of past years, in which the difficulty of securing regular and accurate progress reports has been demonstrated repeatedly.

A special appeal to all community chairmen who, in turn, have been asked to forward these reports to the Walnut Creek office of the Red Cross has been made by the drive headquarters.

This is to enable the office to provide area headquarters with a complete report of progress to March 15, the half-way mark in the campaign.

Newlyweds Take Honeymoon Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sill Anderson (Janice Lamborn) are expected to return Sunday from the honeymoon trip to Carmel and the Santa Cruz Mountains, which followed their marriage last Saturday at St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Berkeley.

Friends of the young couple flocked to attend the lovely four o'clock ceremony where flowering branches from the Lamborn orchard were effectively used to provide a dainty setting for reading of the services. The Rev. J. Henry Thomas officiated.

Janice was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Robert Lamborn of Piedmont. Her gown of white marquisette had a snug bodice finished with tiny Peter Pan collar and the skirt was banded with taffeta faille. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a tight-fitting cap of faille which concealed her hair. Her ensemble was completed with a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bouvardia.

Lora, her sister and matron of honor, wore white organdy over pink taffeta, with a wide pink taffeta sash at the waist of her bouffant skirt. Delphinium, roses and sweet peas were used for her bouquet and those of the bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's twin sisters, Hope and Holly Anderson, Mrs. Robert Andrews (Edith Slater) and Mrs. William Bock (Lorraine Mainwaring), wore blue under their organdy bridesmaids' frocks.

The best man was Robert Anderson, brother of the groom, and ushers were Gibson Gray, Jack Merritt, Charles Coyle and Russell Lupton.

Janice's mother, Mrs. Clyde Lamborn, chose a full length blue and white taffeta gown worn with white gloves, for her daughter's wedding. Grey lace and crepe were combined in the gown worn by Mrs. Alban Anderson, with pink gloves adding an accent note.

The wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Taylor of Alvarado Road, Berkeley, Mrs. Taylor having served as maid of honor at Mrs. Lamborn's wedding 25 years ago.

Both Janice and her husband are graduates of University of California where she was affiliated with Chi Omega Sorority and he was a Phi Delta Theta.

Orinda Golfers Trim St. Mary's Team 27-8

Orinda Country Club golfers led the St. Mary's collegiate linksmen at the match held last weekend, with the final tally 27-8 in Orinda's favor. Fred Goodwin shot a neat 68 to help make the triumph possible.

Brownies Adopt Weimar Patient

Young Jimmy, a patient at Weimar Sanatorium, has been adopted by Brownie Scout Troop 58. Next Thursday, his 4th birthday, he will receive a gift selected by the girls and purchased from their treasury. On each successive special day Jimmy will be remembered by the troop.

Any individual or group interested in this type of adoption of a tubercular child may contact Mrs. George Matey, 7 Los Mesas Path, Orinda 2173, or Mrs. Robert Elder, 15 Via Hermosa, Orinda 2453.

In accordance with their Brownie pledge "to help other people" last month over 100 valentines were made and mailed to the hospital children at Weimar. This month the troop has completed 32 colorful Easter baskets for the younger patients.

New Grocery Opens In Moraga

Balloons to the kiddies were the special feature on Monday, March 13, when the Moraga Grocery opened. Mr. Z. Gregory Kazar is the grocer. He was formerly affiliated with the 4 Star Market on Foothill Boulevard in Oakland.

The Moraga Grocery, located across from the Post Office in Moraga, is the former Sharon's Cash Market. Open hours will be from 7 to 7, seven days a week, from Sunday to Sunday.

A complete line of best quality groceries will be offered you. Mr. Kazar says, "Moraga Grocery offers you courtesy and service. Shop here and save."

Mr. Kazar, his wife Evelyn, and their son, Mickey, age 7, will live in Moraga. They plan to build in the near future. Mickey is a second grader. He will attend the Moraga Elementary School.

Church Schedules Grounds Cleanup

A "Painting and Planting" work day has been set for Saturday, March 25, by Community Church Building and Grounds Committee members. Under the direction of Stanley M. Hudd the "face" of the church hall is to receive a new coat of paint, and with Ralph C. Hall in charge volunteers will carry out the first part of a plan for beautification of church grounds with trees and shrubs.

Church trustees last week authorized procurement of materials for the project.

Volunteers from the church organizations and community are being recruited. It is planned that wives of the workers will serve lunch at noon.

Clippers Hear Garden Expert

The largest gathering yet really crowded the living room of Horace and Edith Breed at 80 Camino Encinas last Friday, when 72 Clipper Club members assembled to learn more about gardening in Orinda.

Ernest Wertheim, Garden Consultant, with rare good humor let many garden secrets "out of the bag" as he spoke about foundation planting, the use of shade-loving plants and native shrubs and finally a description of plants suitable for growing indoors. Potted specimens were on display, thanks to the Orchard Nursery with which Mr. Wertheim is associated. Ken Hauter led the devotions.

Skippers "Chuck" and Mollie Blue then led a discussion on some of the details concerning the division of the Clipper Club into two groups. This resulted in a vote on an age basis, couples whose combined age is 72 or over going into the older group to be known as the Clipper Club and the balance into the younger group.

The latter will choose a name and elect their own officers. It was explained however, that from time to time both groups will meet jointly, at least during the balance of this year.

Delicious refreshments were then served and a mighty good time was had by all.

BUSINESS FLIGHT

Leland Mikesell of Barbara Road spent several days in Los Angeles on a business trip this week. He traveled to Southern California and back by plane.

I'm Frank...

when I tell you that this is the week we've been waiting for. Yes indeed! We are launching one of the greatest paint sales in history. Not in the history of the Orinda Hardware but in the history of the paint business.

Who's behind this great promotion, you ask? None other than the local boy who's made good (made good paint, that is) Walter Q. Boysen. And the Q stands for quality whether you're talking about the fair haired boy ((all right so some of it IS white) of the paint industry or his superior products.

Now for the deal! . . . We are selling Boysen Trulite Enamel for $1.44 per quart. What's so good about that, you say? Just this. The second quart costs you but 1c, that's right ONE, UNO, EIN, cent, centavo, pfennig. Yikes, what a linguist. Sorry Walter, I've forgotten how to say "one" in Svenska. Here's the angle: for EVERY quart you buy at $1.44 you can get another for one cent.

That's Trulite Enamel and it comes in 10 glorious pastel shades including Boysenberry Pink developed especially for the sponsor of this wonderful sale. Incidentally, these Trulite colors are the only ones we've ever seen that "look good enough to eat."

WE ARE ALSO featuring a reduction on outside house paints. This fine Boysen Paint, regularly selling for $4.95 is being featured at $4.45 per gallon. Inside flat wall paint is reduced from $3.67 to $3.30 per gallon. Porch and Deck Enamel will go for $1.35 instead of its regular price of $1.50.

You see, I WAS Frank when I told you this was a big week for us. And it's a big week for you too if you've a mind to get in a little Spring painting. (We do not recommend Boysen Paints for painting towns.)

Oh, yes, in addition to one of the finest collections of brushes, removers and all the other things necessary to do a perfect job with a perfect paint, we have a few Burgess Spray outfits for $9.95. This is the one that sold for $12.95, is electric and is a wonder when it comes to putting on a spray coat.

ANYTHING ELSE I could add to the column today would certainly be unimpressive compared to the bargains just mentioned but I do have this to remind you of. Just call Orinda 2585 for our ideal service. And when I say ideal, I mean it, and

Robert L. Condon Files For Office

Assemblyman Robert L. Condon of Walnut Creek yesterday filed his nominating petitions and declaration of candidacy for re-election to the State Assembly. Condon, a Democrat, filed on the Democrat and Republican tickets.

"I submit my record to the people of the County," Condon said; "It is for them to decide whether that record justifies my return to Socramento."

Condon pointed out that the 1951 Legislature will have many important issues to consider. Particularly the problem on unemployment must be faced. "Fifteen percent of Contra Costa's working force is now unemployed. This is higher than the State's average of ten percent," Condon declared.

"Unemployment breeds more unemployment," the Assemblyman said. "We must not allow another depression to creep upon us. Planning now to encourage private industry, an dproviding for extensive and needed public works may prevent this needless human suffering."

Condon also pointed out that the '51 Session must also reapportion the 80 Assembly Districts and the Congressional Districts. California will probably gain eight Congressmen, and the County, now constituting a single Assembly District, will doubtless be divided to make two Districts.

HEED AUDITOR'S REPORT

The car owner who wants to acquaint himself somewhat with operation costs should first turn to the odometer, advises the National Automobile Club. It is a silent auditor and its reports should be heeded always. Incidentally, if the report seems to be too high or too low, the device might be checked for accuracy. It sometimes makes an error.

Mixup In Prizes Brightens Dance

By DICK ASPEN

"Gads No!" said a fellow at the Teenagers dance Friday night when he discovered he had just won a nylon slip as a door prize. Naturally the girls won shaving sets, a haircut or five gallons of gas.

Flaming sundaes (whatever that means) hamburgers, milk shakes, earrings, tickets to the show, car lubricants, and a large variety of other prizes were given to the holders of lucky door tickets. About the only thing not offered was a 1950 Pontiac.

There was one drawback to the dance — a shortage of girls. Rather than dance with each other some of the bucks in desperation set up a poker game. The chaperons played Canasta.

The musical selections were well chosen and the girls didn't seem to mind that there was a surplus of stags.

Those of us who attended heartily thank the folks of Lafayette who donated the door prizes and helped make the dance what it was.

The discussion will be open to questions from the floor. Parent's Club President Richard Laney has announced that refreshments will be served.

Christmas Seals Bring In $41,088

"Payments for Christmas Seals are still coming in to the Contra Costa Public Health Association ofifce at 604 Ferry Street, Martinez," Miss Ethel Frances Murray, executive secretray, stated in an interview today.

The total so far turned in is $41,088.12. "This money is used principally in the control of tuberculosis," Miss Murray explained, "but other public health problems such as heart disease, cancer and the like, are also served through these funds.

"Since our fiscal year closes March 31, payments received before that date will be credited to the 1949 Christmas sale of Christmas Seals," she stated.

Collins Will Run For Office Again

District Attorney Francis W. Collins is a candidate for re-election at the June 6th primary election.

The well known county official made this a certainty this week when he filed his nomination papers with the county clerk at Martinez.

Collins was appointed district attorney of the county by the board of supervisors on March 15, 1945 from a large field of applicants, upon the resignation of Francis P. Healey.

In 1946 Collins was elected to the office of district attorney without any opposition.

Collins, a native of this county, said that he is asking the people for their vote to retain him in this office on his record as a public official. He said:

"In the years of my service, my office made it a practice and a purpose to represent each individual or agency of the county on the same basis as would an attorney in relation to a private client.

"The work of the office," Collins said, "has increased tremendously and the fact that it has been handled with a minimum of delay and to the best interests of the county and the districts is a matter of record."

Collins paid tribute to the members of his staff, which include his chief deputy Wakefield Taylor, deputy district attorneys Thomas F. McBride, Mortimer B. Veale, Arthur A. Alstrom, Douglas M. Quinlan, Charles L. Hemmings, Matthew S. Walker and David J. Levy, and his investigator Frank Marcollo, and said that they have contributed a great deal in making his office efficient.

If you take a chance in traffic, warns the National Automobile Club, you may very well take a life.

With 400 of the 800 questionnaires sent to parents of Acalanes students returned to the Acalanes Parents Advisory Committee, members of the advisory group are busy tabulating the results, according to Kenneth Courtright.

Mrs. Don Edwards of John Way is recovered from a recent operation performed at Providence Hospital.

Best way to spruce up a telephone is with a soft, dry cloth...never with water, or any other liquid.

HOW TO TREAT YOUR TELEPHONE
Suggestions to help protect your service

1. A twisted cord can lead to trouble. Although the wires are especially designed for flexibility, too many twists and kinks may eventually break them and interfere with service until a repairman can call. Good idea to get the curls out by letting the receiver dangle and unwind by itself . . . then keep them out by remembering, each time you call, not to put turns in the cord as you handle the receiver.

2. It's built to take it . . . but your telephone can develop ailments if it's dropped. So make sure the stand it sits on is solid and is in a spot where it won't be accidentally bumped. Other ways to help protect service: Avoid "gadget" attachments for your telephone . . . keep cords clear of doorways where they may be pinched . . . and always keep water away from wires and fittings.

3. Did you ever stop to think that your telephone is one service or piece of equipment in your home that's repaired and maintained for life at no extra cost to you? This maintenance is one of the values included in the rates you pay for service . . . rates that make it one of your really good buys today.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company

There's A SUN Column To Satisfy Just About Every Reading Taste

Regular readers of the SUN each have their favorite columns, and the SUN offers them a variety in their choice.

For the sports-minded there is the old favorite "From the Sidelines," written by Erwin Mattson, football and baseball coach at Acalanes High School.

SPORTING NEWS

In his regular column Coach Mattson tells the local sporting news as viewed from the sidelines — football, basketball, tennis, track, baseball and any other sport of local interest, written with thorough knowledge from the point of view of player and spectator alike.

For the horsy set who have mastered the art of maintaining a good seat in the saddle or those who merely worship horseflesh and riders from afar there are descriptions of our outdoor "Horseman's Paradise" by Ada Morgan.

COLORFUL HISTORY

Besides depicting the doings of local riders and offering tips on the care of the equine breed, Mrs. Morgan also gives interesting background on the area's colorful past.

The days when Joaquin Murrietta was the scourge of the West are made to live again by Mrs. Morgan. She also has carried on a campaign to bring recognition to Reliez Valley's own mountain lion equal to that granted Murgatroyd who roams Orinda's Hills.

Recently she was vindicated, as readers of her column know.

DOGS HAVE DAY

Dogs and dog lovers, neglected until recently, now have their day through the medium of a new SUN column.

Dog lovers can now get the news straight "From The Doghouse" through the pen of Lyn McKee.

News of the doggy set's doings throughout the area and at dog shows throughout the East Bay are chronicled each month by Mrs. McKee.

In addition she offers timely tips on the care, feeding and what is more important, teaching of etiquette to your dog, be he mongrel or thoroughbred.

And she's qualified on both counts. She has been associated with dog shows throughout the Eastern points of the United States and in the East Bay.

Her own dog? It's a mongrel pooch, which shows she's broad-minded. Evidence of her success at dog raising is the lack of conflict between her pup and her daughter, who are the same age. But, again, that could be evidence that she should also write a column on child care.

HOMES AND GARDENS

This area is one of homes and gardens. One of its unique features to visitors from the urban areas is the interest the menfolk take in the care of the grounds around their homes.

Many a man who never saw his lawn in the city, if indeed he ever had a lawn, now battles with his wife for a turn at the lawnmower, hedge clipper and pruning shears.

For these green thumbers the SUN provides a garden column. Bert Wright, a professional gardener and nurseryman, presents "Your Garden." In it Wright tells you just what to do to save that ailing plant whose life you've despaired of.

In its column you can find out "how to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before," or even how to make one grow where none would survive before.

Doubting Thomases can take a look around at their neighbors' yards where operations are carried out with the SUN vying with grass seed as the first item to be set out on commencing work.

THERE'S ALWAYS CAP

For those who are left cold by horses, dogs or sport — for those who are exhausted by the mere thought of gardening there is always Cap Sandford, who never fails to amuse, instruct and provoke to thought.

Oldtime subscribers always turn to the inside pages immediately to find out "Wha's Cap mad at now," and what "Cap Sandford Says."

Main object of his ire, in which opinion he is joined by many local people, are the drivers who gave him the inspiration for renaming Mt. Diablo Boulevard the "Maniac Boulevard."

Week after week Cap has hammered away at the careless drivers who make every pedestrian a bad insurance risk the moment they try to cross the street.

And he's had a few results. Of course, he would be the first to disclaim credit for the present automatic signal installations, but his writings have not fallen on deaf ears. Cap demanded the signals. They're there aren't they?

Chiang Kai Shek comes in for a few raps from Cap too, as do all high handed autocrats and persons who abuse the power of their office.

He's not all vinegar either, as members of the Contra Costa Commuters Association found out at their last meeting. Cap's a resident of Lafayette, with all of his business in this area. An automobile owner, he never rides the buses.

Yet he came out as the first individual to offer financial assistance to the commuters in their battle to keep Greyhound fares at their present rate.

So don't be surprised in coming issues to find Cap taking on Greyhound for a last ditch battle. And he's got a good batting average.

Sun Subscription Price Going to $3

Subscription price of the SUN will be increased from $2.50 to $3. a year effective April 1, it was announced today.

The subscription price 2½ years ago, when the present publisher assumed ownership, was $3 per year but this was immediately reduced to $2.50.

"Since then our printers' union has negotiated two wage increases and the cost of newsprint, ink, equipment and every other materials we use has also gone up. Negotiations with the union begins again shortly and material costs appear to be on the rise," the publisher stated today.

Even a Lawn Must Eat In Order to Live And Now Is the Proper Time to Feed It

By BERT WRIGHT

IN MARCH A LOT of folks get no closer to gardening than the perusal of seed catalogs. However, one of the most basic good gardening practices is a late February or early March activity. It is at this time that gardeners should be feeding their lawns.

No one knows better than I that February weather does not beckon one into the yard. However, the late winter and early spring weather is just the kind to work the plant food down into the root zones of the grass. Applied at the rate of 3 pounds per 100 square feet—on top of a light snow if possible—the plant food is soaked deep into the soil by the spring thaws and rains. No watering is necessary.

I have heard the objection that plant food applied this early will be leached away or carried away by surface run-offs. If the application were made on bare ground on a sloping surface, run-off might indeed carry away a lot of the plant food. But where there is a well established turf each of the grass blades act as a small obstacle to any possible loss from the surface.

As for leaching out I wouldn't worry about that, either. The leaching that does take place between the time of application and the time the grass begins to grow is just enough to be beneficial. During this time the downward movement of the plant food-laden-water carries the nutrient elements down to where the feeding roots can best pick them up.

For early feeding it is necessary to use a complete plant food that is readily available to the grass roots just as growth starts. Since it contains no organic material the availability is immediate and the roots do not need to wait for the soil bacteria to "warm up" and break it down into a usable form.

I suggest that you obtain your entire year's supply of plant food now in order to have it handy for flower beds and the vegetable patch, come April and May.

FACE LIFTING

IT'S AMAZING WHAT a little paint and powder can do!

Diamond K is starting off the new year with the "new look." Next time you drive through Lafayette notice the new sign and color going on our building. No more drab look. We want you to have a store which is up to date in looks as well as supplies.

We are using our own top quality Pittsburgh paint. This is an improved paint from the laboratories of industry. With repair and replacement prices as high as they are today, it's good to remember this lesson: When you beautify your home with paint you also protect it against rust, rot, and plain wear. The application of Pittsburgh paint will preserve the materials from which the house was built. When painting always remember, at the start consider the finish.

HOW DOES YOUR garden grow? Not very well if your soil is adobe or clay. We all like to see shrubs and trees planted against the house. It will make your property more valuable, attractive, and livable. Top soil hauled in now will fill your planting areas with good loam and the soil will have a chance to breathe.

Diamond K now has access to its own top soil pile and will be glad to take an order from you. Your planting area should be spaded deeply and thoroughly. Also, do not plant too close to building walls, but allow for air circulation. Plants do well if they aren't directly under dripping eaves or exposed to heat reflected from walls.

The most generally neglected detail of garden construction is drainage. This is realized during a season of "unusual" climate when rains pour down. If this is your problem, come in and have Bill explain how easy it is to put in your own system of drain tile. Such drain tile is essential in other surfaces where seepage occurs. With a few supplies you can do the job yourself. You will be surprised how much satisfaction and pleasure your garden can give you when conditions for growing are right.

Workmen Escape Effects of Gas

As a precautionary measure, two men nearly overcome by chlorine gas at Acalanes High School Monday were given carbogen inhalations by members of Lafayette Fire Department who responded to an emergency call.

Evans Price, Saranap, head custodian of the school, and Louis Freitas, Walnut Creek, were inspecting new equipment in a 10-foot deep pit adjoining the Acalanes High School swimming pool, when the leaking chlorine gas affected them. The two men smelled the fumes in time to get out before they were completely overcome.

The Fire Department crew rendering first aid measures under the direction of Fire Chief Shirley Peakes were Robert Winkel, Eddie Armanino and Russel McFadden.

El Molino Adds Folk Dance Feature

El Molino Restaurant is now under new owership and management.

Mike Goff and Bill Werum have purchased the property from its former owner, Joe Molino.

A new feature added by the new owners will be folk dancing to recorded music each Thursday evening.

The Friday and Saturay night performances of the Gas Light Troupers will continue as before.

Both new owners are former football players. Goff played with College of the Pacific in 1946 and on the St. Mary's squad in 1948. Werum was on the 1941-42 San Francisco State team.

Both Werum and Goff have established their homes in Lafayette and plan to operate their business on a restaurant basis, featuring the excellence of their kitchen.

Women Voters to Meet Thursday

Organization of an Orinda section of the Berkeley League of Women Voters will get underway with an initial planning meeting set for next Thursday, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Mallary, 33 Overhill Road. The question of subject matter will be discussed in outlining the program for the group.

The meeting is open to interested persons of the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga area as well as the membership of the Berkeley League of Women Voters. Further information may be obtained by telephoning Orinda 2893 or Orinda 2298.

Linda Boyen Celebrates Her Second Birthday

Linda Rose Boyen celebrated her second birthday March 9 with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyen, 4 Via Floreada.

Guests included Georgia Gray, Laurie Stahle, Julie Smith, Katie Dullum and Vicki Brown. Cake and ice cream were served following the usual birthday games.

Orinda Cub Pack To Give Awards

Presentation of awards and the showing of motion pictures are both on the program for the meeting of Orinda Cub Pack 52, to be held next Friday, 8 p.m., at Orinda Grammar School auditorium.

This is the first meeting when all the new Bobcats will appear in uniform, according to Bob Anthonisen, pack publicity chairman.

Nate Dodge will head up the baseball program for the year, and will have the schedule out soon, it was announced.

Among some of the den activities now in progress or in the recent past are: The visit of Den 3 to the University of California chemistry department glass blowing laboratory, with Den Mother Mrs. F. Blaney represented by Mrs. Lucille Anthonisen who accompanied the boys; completion of its den "doodle," an achievement rack made to hold their awards, by boys of Den 4, making of cork cocktail coasters and door knockers and a movie program at their last den meeting, with Mrs. A. Doty reported as new den mother; and a trip to Snow Museum in Oakland Wednesday, conducted by Den Mother Mrs. Austin Little for the Cubs of her Den 7.

Martinez Rotary Celebrates Here

Martinez Rotary Club will celebrate its St. Patrick's Day birthday anniversary with a dinner and entertainment program at the Willow's tonight at 7 o'clock. Members of Orinda Rotary will be among guests invited to attend the party.

Guest speaker will be Sam Hume, who will talk on "The Romance of Books."

Lions to Hold Adventure Night

Next Wednesday night has been tabbed "Adventure Night" for Orinda Lions, with Don Hunter providing a special program for the members. He will introduce Webb MacKenzie of the Thomas Short Company of San Francisco, who will show color movies of the 1949 Trans-Pacific Honolulu Yacht Race, supplemented with a story of the race and the reception awaiting the ships and their crews in the Islands. MacKenzie said as a crewmember of the "Tasco," Short's boat. This is his second trans-Pacific yatch race and accounts for some of the 35,000 miles of ocean sailing he has to his credit.

A change in the plans for the "Ladies Night" program scheduled for April 12 has been announced by Stewart Wade, chairman. Since Norville Gillespie has been called away on a business trip, John Paul Edwards will describe ways to "Brighten Up Your Garden."

He will show a color and sound movie on roses, a film for which he was technical advisor. Edwards has an enviable reputation in the horticultural world; a consulting rosarian, he is a member of the American Rose Society, national president of the Fuschia Society, director of the Northern California Camellia Society and an active judge for many flower shows.

A special dinner has been planned for Lions and their feminine guests, as well as additional entertainment features.

all Around ORINDA

WITH THE ROUNDER

IT'S PROBABLY GETTING pretty monotonous—all the talking done about our excessive tax load. But a very brief look at the causes might make a person wonder how come there isn't more beefing. The upkeep of the two main roads, Orinda and Moraga Highways, is what might be termed something to laugh about if it wasn't enough to raise blood pressures by several notches.

Wonder when the county road men will finally learn that filling holes with hot asphalt, raking it smooth and driving on to the next minor canyon doesn't do a bit of good? How about using a little of Orindans' tax money for road relief for Orindans instead of relief for county indigents?

THE DOWNER CORP. doing sewer work in Lafayette has been having a dickens of a time finishing up its contract—namely putting the streets mutilated by them back in some semblance of their former condition. The Sewer District's Board of Directors has tried every method in the books to get action by the Downer Corp. Finally sent their own engineers into the field to check the cost of finishing the job. They reported back that $2500 would complete the job in one week.

THEN, here's the story as told to us: Couple of the directors went to the contractors—explained that if the contractors would put up the money, the sewer district would complete he job for the benefit of the people in the district. Downer agreed—put up a certified check for $5000—asked for a release from finishing up the job.

A difficult problem had apparently been solved and the people living on the beat up street would get some action. But so far as we know the job is still not being done—because the check was returned to the contractors by the Board of Directors. What we'd like to know is why the directors went to the trouble of solving the problem if they weren't going to use the solution. (Editor's note: See story this issue.)

We mention this because Orinda too is being sewerized—and it's possible that the people might get caught in a like situation.

FRUSTRATED GOLFER OF THE WEEK must have been the man on the Country Club course the other day. A number of ladies, under the tutelage of Pat Patton, was whacking dozens of golf balls up the fairway along Orinda Highway. The grass was white with balls when our golfer friend made a drive—smack into the center of the ladies' practice shots!!!

HO HUM DEPT. The "Orinda Directory" that was delivered this week—listed no actual Orinda businesses—but a number of those located at Bryant Junction, better known under the alias of Orinda Crossroads. Bryant Junction is the area's name on all official maps.

A CHURCH MOUSE, according to the old saying, is supposed to be poor. Not, we imagine, is Orinda's. Looked quite well fed and contented as it kept popping in and out and around the pulpit as the Rev. Morrow spoke at the Community Church last Sunday. Anyone got a cat with a healthy appetite that the church can borrow for a while?

THE SUN ALMOST didn't shine in parts of Orinda this week. A group of subscribers finally got their copies after a three day wait. Seems the circulation manager put a bundle or two in a [illegible] room—forgot 'em. They were found two days later. Come, come fellows—such a thing could prove embarrassing. Suppose no one even missed their issue. Sudden thot—did anyone?

NOT SINCE ORINDA'S DRAMATEURS searched the countryside for chamber-pots, ox yokes, blue hent boxes and live baby pigs has anything comparable to the Lions Club's forthcoming "Night of Magic" occurred. Magician Steve Juhasz Shepard, for example, has a trick called the "Vanishing Birdcage." Makes a good sized cage, complete with a couple of canaries, disappear before your eyes.

Even undresses — almost — to prove he hasn't got the thing in his clothes. Sort of a male striptease—without motion.

Among the other acts to be presented by Shepard and his assistants will be Here Comes the Bride, It's All in Your Mind (hmmm).

JUST A REMINDER. The County Dog Pound has been threatening lax license getters with fines and jail terms with ads lately in the papers. Got your license for your pooch yet? Or are you going to take a chance on being popped into the clinker?

NEW BUSINESS opens tomorrow—officially that is—in the building next to the theater. Will offer clothes for youngsters. The Hans and Gretel shop will be opened by Dorothy Selbach, former Orindan, who likes Orinda so well she returned to open her business—is preparing to build a home here too.

SOME UNKIND INDIVIDUALS, recalling that the Dramateurs have just held tryouts for their next play, "Two Blind Mice," have intimated that that mouse in the church last Sunday was a publicity stunt. Take the Rounder's word, it wasn't.

Teatro para ninos Back on Schedule

Teatro Para Ninos is now back on schedule, with the showing, at last, of "The Madonna's Secret" last Saturday. The show tomorrow will be "Under Nevada Skies," with Roy Rodgers and Dale Evans. There will also be a serial installment and cartoons.

Bill Hilger celebrated his 7th birthday by inviting friends to attend last Saturday's show with him, following luncheon at his home on El Verano. His guests included Kit Von Guenthner, Charlie Ward, Micahel Bigler, Jimmy Gilwee, Scot McFarland and Bill's brothers Bruce and Dean.
